COLONY'S COLD SNAP

35 DECREES ON THE PEAK

41.6 IN KOWLOON

TO-DAY COLDEST OF WINTER

Hongkong has for the past two days been experiencing a cold snap, so much so that the mean temperature for yesterday, 46.1, is the lowest experienced since January 31st. 1925.

Actually, the minimum temperature for the day was below this. namely 43.2, whilst between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning there was n further drop to 41.6.

Nothing like a record has been established, however, the lowest mean temperature for any one day being 34.2 on January 16th, 1893, while in the same month a record minimum of 32 (freezing point) was registered.

PEAK SHIVERS.

On the Peak this morning, the temperature was very low, 35 degrees, or three points above freezing, being registered in some localities.

The anticyclone still continues to cover China, and the prospects are that the cold snap will continue for two or three days at

Royal Observatory returns for the past six days show the following temperatures:

Geneva, Jan. 27. The British Government have caused to be circulated among the great Powers, a new disarmament document, based on the various Plans submitted to the Conference and the resolutions adopted by the five principal Powers on December 19.

The document does not contain any new plan, but is designed to expedite progress simultaneously on the political and, technical sides of disarmaments.—Reuter.

PROGRAMME OF WORK.

The purpose of the British Government is to give direction to the discussion now proceeding in the Bureau of the Conference. ### CINEMA SCREENINGS.

NOTES SUPPLIED BY THE THEATRES

Laughs and thrills in plenty are provided in Howard Hughes' latest film offering, "Sky Devils". For sheer entertainment value, this mile-a-minute movie of fighting and flying fools unquestionably tops them all. Action, romance, comedy and spectacle, all combine in one story on Sunday at the King's Theatre. "Sky Devils" contains some of the most spectacular air scenes shown on the screen since "Hell's Angels," and its comedy is reminiscent of producer Hughes' first great laugh-hit. "Two Arabian Knights." Spencer Tracy, in the role of the rough, but romantic, airman, and William Boyd, as the hard-flying, two-fisted top-sergeant, have never given better performances. They are immense, and so is George Cooper, third of the flying trio who make history in the air, and on the ground, in some of the most amazing exploits over filmed. Ann Dvorak, the new Howard Hughes discovery, is positively fascinating in the leading feminine ly fascinating in the leading feminine role opposite Tracy.

She wearily extracted herself from the depths of her chair. "How long do you suppose those people will want to play, Tom?"

"There's no telling." His discouraging answer was prompt as he helped her to her feet. "I could see from the way they went as it that they're regular fiends, Shaughnessey also had risen.

"I'm in favour of retiring myself," this is far and away more exciter's door is right across the hall looked down to the lawn all the ing. I'm thankful indeed that you called me in and sorry I acted so bombastical over my rights. 'Tis all the kings of Ireland I think 1 am at times. We'll meet in the morning and exchange the results of our hours of thoughts. Goodnight to the both of you-"

As they passed through the open, flower-scented living room Shaughnessey stopped at the screen door on the side toward the garage. "I'm needing no escort this time," he said, and rather sheepishly hurried off across the gravelled road.

REDS TO HELP

LEADERS GIVE PLEDGE TO KUOMINTANG

Nanking, Jan. 27. A very rare and significant occasion was provided thin afternoon when three of the highest Communist leaders were granted nn Interview in the Chineso-press in which they expressed in very frank language the necessity of the Chinese people presenting a united face in the present national crisis to resist the anti-Japanese aggression.

All three leaders have already disnovowed the Communist cause and pledged their loyalty to the Kuomintang.

The interview took place in a local cafe which was closely guarded by plainclothesmen for fear of a Communist attempt on the life of the three speakers who are Hunng Pin, a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, a delegate to the world anti-'mperial'st Conference in Berl'n in 1928 and Foreign Re-Bottons Commissar during the Canton uprising in 1927, Yui Fei Posident Representative of the Chinese Communist Party at Moscow, and Hauh Si-keng, delegete to the Communist Internationale in 1928, member of the Central Supervisory Comm'ttee of the World Communist Party and Chairman of the Shanghal Labour Communist Union.--Reu-

THE DIRECTORSHIP OF EDUCATION

The Colony's Education Department has suffered a heavy loss by the retirement of Mr. G. P. de Martin, who has just given up the post of Director of Education. Mr. de Martin has served the Government with unremitting zeal for a period of close on thirty years, all in the Education Department. Whether as master, inspector Head of the Department, he has shown marked ability in his work, and has always kept before him the highest ideals of his calling. These factors, coupled with his intimate knowledge, from practical experience, of the educational needs of the Colony, have singled him out as a man of immense worth to the Government. It is only natural that such a man should come difficulty but has accepted the to know the Department from American suggestion that war top to bottom, and, without debts and world economic prodisparagement of the work of blems be discussed at Washingthose who went before him, it ton simultaneously. COMMENCING TO-MORROW

AT 11.30 A.M. 2.30, 5.10, 7.15 AND 9.30 P.M. DAILY.

NEW AIR PICTURE "SKY DEVILS," DUE TO-MORROW.

The first outstanding air picture to come out of Hollywood since "Hell's Angels" will be shown at this theatre to-morrow.

Howard Hughes, who produced "Hell's Angels," is responsible for the production, a comedy spectacle called "Sky Devils."

The new air thriller has all the spectacular quality of "Hell's Angels," and is a laugh fest as well. Fifty-five fighting planes were used in the making of "Sky Devils," and all of them are shown in action simultaneously on the screen.

As in "Hell's Angels," the flying scenes in "Sky Devils" are authentic in every detail, and no faked or processed shots went into the produc-

"Sky Devils" is based on an exciting and humorous tale of three flying Yankees overseas. "The parts are played by Spencer Tracy, William" Boyd and George Cooper.

The picture, which was directed by Edward Sutherland, has been acclaimed by advance reviewers the comedy sensation of the year and has enjoyed record runs in New York and other metropolitan centres where it has already played.

TRACY PREFERS PLAYING HEAVIES OR LAUGH ROLES.

Spencer Tracy, who plays the leading role in "Sky Devils," the Howard Hughes air comedy, would rather be a villain, or a comedian, on the screen. He is one successful and handsome young star who has no desire to be a romantic film lover.

"I prefer the type of roles I played in 'The Last Mile,' in 'Up the River' and in 'Sky Devils,' " declared Tracy. "None of this sheik stuff for

In "Sky Devils," which Tracy considers his best screen role since he quit the stage for films, the actor is a tough smart-sleck air-man. He goes in for a bit of romance, but not the parlour and bedroom stuff for which movie heroes are noted.

Playing opposite Tracy in "Sky Devils" is Ann Dvorak, the new Howard Hughes discovery. William Boyd and George Cooper also have prominent roles in this exciting air farce.

CATHOLIC PRELATE'S DEATH IN PEKING

Peking, Jan. 27. Bishop Stanislaus Jarlin, Catholic Bishop of Peking since 1900, died this afternoon, aged 77 years.

Bishop Jarlin came to China in 1886 and became Bishop here In 1900, just before the Boxer troubles. During the memorable siege of Peking he took an active part in organising a successful defence in the Catholic Cathedral compound where a thousand Christians and missionaries took refuge.-Reuter's

BULGARIAN UPROAR. PROHIBITED PROCESSION CAUSES RIOTS

Sofia, Jan. 27. Two hundred persons were arrested in Plevna and a number njured or arrested in Varna last night during disturbances following the prohibition issued against the holding of a funeral procession for the Macedonian Communist Deputy, M. Trikoff, who was murdered in the streets of Sofia on Tuesday.

The police disarmed the rioters in each case .- Reuter.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By W. E. McKenney

Mr. von Zedtwitz brought a most successful year to a close by winning the open contract championship at New York recently. Giving the opponents an opportunity to make an error is one of the baron's most successful

He played the following interesting hand. His side was vulner--the opponents were not vulner-

Mr. von Zedtwitz sat in the South and opened the bidding with one heart. West doubled. Mr. von Zedtwitz' partner made n psychic overcall of two diamonds, which East doubled. South and West passed and North bid two hearts, which East promptly doubled.

The Play

West's opening lead was the king of spades, which held the trick. West decided that to continue the spades would be assisting the declarer, as it might aid him in establishing a long spade in dummy. Therefore he elected to lead a trump and played the jack of hearts, which Mr. von Zedtwitz won with the ace.

The declarer then led the jack of spades, which West won with the queen. East discarded a diamond, which gave Mr. von Zedtwitz the first tip-off on the hand-that East probably held four clubs.

West now made the mistake of leading the king of clubs. East signalled with the seven of clubs; therefore West continued with the jack of clubs, East winning the trick with the ace.

East returned the six of trump, which the declarer won in dummy with the seven of hearts.

His next play was the eight of clubs from dummy, and as he had
